

PHILOSOPHY
(specialty 09.00.13)

Kovalev V.V. Axiological identification crisis of the elite as a key stage of its development

The article reveals major characteristics of the current elite's crisis that is of axiological identification manner, marked by an essential positive trend due to different reasons. One of them is an inside struggle between representatives of dynamic part of elite and conservative one leads to increase of elite's most productive part, able to realize Corrective Action Plan in upgrading national axiological policy in order to provide a brand new value system, consisting of such essential values as prosperity of society basing on supremacy of freedom law in it's admittable exposure and constant interaction between social-and-political elite and mass, achieving justice in relation to a person, foremost ensured by state. It is one of the reasons that axiological identification crisis is a key period of the Russian social-and-political elite's moral-and-spiritual development.

Key words: axiological, elite's crisis, key period, values development, Corrective Action Plan.

Southern
federal university

March, 14, 2011
