

PEDAGOGY
(specialty 13.00.08)

Popik V.A. Organization and methodical terms of increasing of professional competence level of teachers of innovation developed education center

One of the ways to increase the quality of the education and to renew its contents is the so called competence approach. The author reveals the conditions of the teachers' professional competence improvement on the base of the effective methodical service creation. The work also contains the methodical work forms classification as well as the algorithm for their selection to help the teachers. In the article there can be also found an attempt to analyze the role of the methodical service of the Educational Center in the process of teacher's professional competence forming. The methodical service in question is the one which supplies methodically the teachers of the Educational Center today.

Key words: effectiveness, conditions, methodical work, professional competence, professional associations, innovations.

Moscow humanitarian pedagogical institute

May, 17, 2011
