

SOCIAL SCIENCE
(specialty 22.00.01)

Apukhtin A.F. Prospects and problems of realization of patent innovations in the sphere of practical medicine

452 physicians of Volgograd hospitals were interviewed within the period from May till September 2009. These physicians were asked about hospital native and foreign produced equipment, governmental and municipal support of inventors, patent legislation. 77,8% physicians estimate the situation with equipment as a failure. 42,5% physicians consider that home health care depends on foreign equipment. More than 60% asked physicians if they have known about home patents and used them in the work. 31,1% respondents used the invention and half (54,1%) inventors tried to realize theme's inventions in practical health care. In opinion of 62,5% respondents, introduction of patent's objects in practical health care is topical. Failure governmental and municipal support of inventors and incompleteness of the patent legislation are noticed by 28,8% of all respondents. 48,2% physicians have considered that payment for the utilization by patents is low.

Key words: intellectual property, practical health care, patent's objects, inventors.

Volgograd state
medical university

August, 18, 2011

---