

SOCIAL SCIENCE
(specialty 22.00.01)

Akhmedova I.G. Priority national projects and Russian young family functioning

In the article, the range of problems of a modern young family is described; socio-cultural analysis of priority national projects aimed at supporting a young family in modern Russia is presented, it is also highlighted, that a priority national project is the solution of demographic problems. The main idea of the article is to examine the role of a family in the life of a person and society, which cannot be overestimated. In a family as a social institution, material needs and value system of an individual are formed and met; a cultural world view of a personality is formed on the basis of traditions, as well as mutual implementing in housekeeping and psychological support. The article considers that there are many negative phenomena in the society, which occur due to family's ineffective implementation of its social functions. It is critically emphasized, that in the period of social transformation children homelessness is wide spread, there is increasing number of divorces, parents deprived of parental rights and the extent of social abandonment.

Key words: national projects, young family, youth, social, modernization, demographic, welfare, maternity capital.

South-Russian state university of economics and service

August, 22, 2011
