

ECONOMICS
(specialty 08.00.05)

Botashev R.A. Work quota setting of new knowledge and innovation developers

It is displayed an approach to the construction of a flexible system of work quota setting in research and project organizations creating new knowledge and innovations in terms of formation of innovation economy in Russia, it is described the methodics of quota settings, analyzed its advantages and offered the sphere of its application. It is recommended for the managers and specialists of scientific-and-research and project organizations.

Key words: norms and normatives of labor, innovative economy, economy of knowledge, scientific-and-research organization, project organization, work and labor processes planning, innovations, management, labor economy.

Karachaevo-Cherkessky
state university

November, 16, 2011
