

LAW
(specialty 12.00.01)

Plekhova O.A. L.I. Brezhnev's reforms and consolidation of the highest Soviet and state bureaucracy during 1964-1983 years

The article is devoted to the analysis of the state reforms carried out during the period of L.I. Brezhnev. This period is interesting as L.I. Brezhnev's coming to power begins with the policy of counterreforms. It is considered the return to ministerial board, government centralization. Thus the government doesn't aspire to restore Stalin system of board up to the end. It is accepted to name this period of history of our country "stagnation" time, the opinion that in 60-70s, the beginning developments of stagnation is proved in economic and political spheres of life of the country as those still are absent and revealed only at the beginning of 80s.

Key words: L.I. Brezhnev's board, the stagnation period, bureaucracy, the nomenclature, corruption, the ministries.

Voroshilovskiy branch of Rostov Region Bar

April, 5, 2012
