

PEDAGOGY

specialty 13.00.01

Kostruleva I.V., Sivolobova N.A. Young generation of the XXI century: topical problems of students patriotic upbringing

In work problems and features of patriotic education of students, essence of national consciousness, a role of social and economic and political system of the state which has ambiguous impact on consciousness and behavior of student's youth, a contradiction in various spheres of public life and their results, patriotic motivation of students are considered. The work purpose – to reveal and prove pedagogical conditions, and also to define ways of improvement of patriotic education of student's youth. Novelty of research consists that authors revealed conditions of increase of level of educational activity of the teacher on patriotic education of students in modern educational space; adequate reflection of nature of patriotic education of students and those requirements which are shown to teachers is given. The essence of patriotic education of students consists in establishment of harmony of the relations between values of various level that is expressed in regularities of this type of education: the most important theoretical basis of patriotic education is the psychology-pedagogical theory of communication on the basis of which contacts, interaction, orientation in civil and patriotic values are come into.

Keywords: patriotism, upbringing, patriotic motivation, national ideology.

Stavropol

state university

September, 23, 2012

---