Builo B.I. N. Berdyaev and the Eurasians: similarities and differences of positions

The main positive of Eurasia, according to Berdyaev, is that this is essentially the first and "the only post-revolutionary ideological movement that emerged in emigre circles". The Eurasians are not democrats and populists, so they agree to go along with the people, even if he is mistaken to gradually revive the true facts of life. In his quest to change lives by building a better and stronger state Eurasians actually break with the Orthodox and Slavophile tradition, without noticing, become the path of Westernization and Americanization of Russia. Europe, emphasized Berdyaev, has always been characterized by a love for the state, organization and strong leadership. These ideas have nothing to do with the ideology of Moscow as the Third Rome, in which the force was primarily the result of spiritual principles.

Key words: Turan element ideocracy, Russian idea, a social ideal, Russian Marxism.
