

LAW
(specialty 12.00.08)

Beznisko M.O. Preacher of morality in trial

The article deals with the identification of meaningful features of the national ideal of an example of rhetorical eloquence of A.F. Kony. Aspirations for the rule of law and justice have been infused with all of the scientific and literary works of A.F. Kony. He attaches importance to the principle of adversarial in his writings, which is based on the positions of morality and equality of rights of the parties in the court for upholding their views. A.F. Kony combines the body of knowledge and skills to prepare and say judicial speech, consistent with the requirements of the law and the ability to construct objectively reasoned argument that forms the scientific and legal beliefs. The contradictions are inherent at our times, and how to overcome them is one of the most important challenges of our time, in which solution the spiritual heritage of A.F. Kony can play an invaluable role.

Key words: accusatory speech, the law, justice, judicial activist, adversarial court, the prosecutor, the spiritual heritage.

Russian academy of law of Ministry of Justice of Russian Federation. Moscow, Russia

October, 22, 2013

---