

PEDAGOGY
(specialty 13.00.08)

Kharlov M.A. Professional-and-education problems of modern social-and-economic situation in small towns of Russia

The current political and social-economic processes in Russia show us the importance of the roles of education in the destiny of our country and its towns. I.P. Smirnov writes that multiple attempts to find out the ways of reforming of education are often ineffective. The author gives us the analysis of the features of social – economic and professional – educational situation in condition of a small town and determines the decision of the problem of management of the development educational institutions in small towns.

Key words: problem-oriented analysis, mechanism of self-development, social-economic situation, professional - educational situation, strategy of development of a small town.

Shadrinsk polytechnical college. Shadrinsk, Russia

October, 15, 2013

---