

SOCIAL SCIENCE

(specialty 22.00.08)

Abirov M.S. Social dissociation of Russian society in terms of extreme changes

It is analyzed the radical changes in the systemic crisis of Russian society, the disintegration of the traditional ties. We consider the global process of establishing a new social hierarchy - the emergence of new social groups and strata of the elite, based on the processes of redistribution of property , power, income , lifestyle, and changing value orientations. Analyzes the characteristics of stratification processes in the Russian society, as well as the modern transformation of the social structure of our country.

Key words: Russia, the state, society, population, reform, management, system, structure, crisis, disintegration, the stage adaptation, democracy, modern, dissociation, social, economic stratification, transformation.

Ingushsky state university.

Ingushettia Republic, Magas

September, 10, 2013

---