

LAW
(specialty 12.00.08)

Beznisko M.O. Criminal complicity

Crimes committed in complicity have their social and legal characteristics. Distinctive legal signs of crimes committed in complicity allow to allocate a separate penal institution. Criminal Code treats participation as a deliberate joint participation of two or more people in the commission of an intentional crime. Crimes committed in complicity have much greater danger to society, they are characterized by a clear preparation, forethought actions to conceal his tracks, significant physical and mental harm. The concept of complicity institute in the Russian criminal law, defined the concept of complicity in the crime, types of partners and the basic principles of their responsibility are considered.

Key words: criminal complicity, criminal and law institution, criminal code, social danger.

Russian academy of law

of Ministry of Justice

of Russian Federation. Moscow, Russia

December, 25, 2013

---