

PHILOSOPHY

D.V. Chernov

(Novosibirsk state pedagogical university, working for Ph.D. degree. Novosibirsk, Russia)

Philosophic basis of professional education on social work

It is analyzed the content and meaning of development of professional education for social work in the modern Russian society. Philosophical foundations of professional social education are discovered. In the context of the relevant scientific concepts to the philosophy of education, the specificity of the educational system, training of social workers are considered. The role of domestic scientists in development of problems of professional social knowledge is emphasized, the special attention is paid to researches of the Barnaul school of sciences of sociology and social work under the leadership of professors S.I. Grigoryev and L.G. Guslyakova, their main scientific works are analyzed. In work the analysis of professional education on social work from positions of philosophy of education is submitted. Thus, the author determines possibility of the philosophical analysis in studying of professional education by social work.

Key words: professional education, philosophy of education, instrumental approach, conceptual approach, paradigmatic analysis, philosophy of education, social work.

December, 16, 2014