

PHILOSOPHY

M.V. Finko

(Don state technical university. Rostov-on-Don, Russia)

Phenomenon of Russian religious philosopher I.A. Ilyin

Appeal to the creative heritage of the great Russian philosopher I.A. Ilyin in the search for ways and means are necessary for the protection of our traditional spiritual values due to the indisputable fact that in his writings he used the other was able to feel the same underlying trends that determine the development of European civilization in the XXI century: the crisis of culture, cultural and national identity, disbelief, devaluation traditional spiritual values, spiritual break with the past, erasing the criteria of good and evil, the contradictory development of a multipolar world. As the current events take place in Western Europe and the former Soviet Union, the negation of values, rejection of them as a unifying principle in the XXI century for the modern world order is becoming one of the most dangerous manifestations of destructive forces and painful for the destruction of nations: cultural, spiritual, philosophical.

Key words: Russian religious philosophy, traditional values, national and cultural identity, Orthodox.

January, 21, 2016
