

LINGUISTICS

E.V. Murugova

(Don state technical university. Rostov-on-Don, Russia)

Process of concept interconnection in linguacreative human activity

The article focuses on the peculiarities of part-of-speech interaction, reflecting different patterns of knowledge (on the agent of an action, on the subject, on the process, on the characteristic of the object, etc.), which are fixed by the adjectival concept and lead to either modifications of various concept properties or total changes generating new concepts. All the changes characteristic of mental sphere affecting cognitive processes are fixed by linguistic units in linguacreative human activity.

Key words: categorization, derivatives, word building processes, concept, interconnection, cognitive modelling

April, 12, 2016
