

LINGUISTICS

S.M. Isaeva

(University of Russian innovative education. Moscow, Russia)

To the issue of implication the principle of level sociocultural equivalence in teaching fiction translation

The article dwells upon principles of teaching fiction translation in language colleges, created on the hierarchy of principles in teaching foreign languages by E. I. Passov: general didactical, general methodical, particular methodical and special. Among the group of special principles the most effective is the principle of level sociocultural equivalence, based on using author's scheme of level sociocultural equivalence on different sociocultural realias in the process of translation methods analyses.

Key words: fiction translation, principles of teaching fiction translation, translational competence, sociocultural competence, sociocultural approach, sociocultural education, intercultural difficulties, methodical goals, teaching belles-lettres style works translation, realias classification, methods of translating realias, the principle of level sociocultural equivalence.

August, 6, 2016

---