

PHILOSOPHY

Vadim N. Goncharov, Gennady I. Lukyanov

(North-Caucasus federal university. Stavropol, Russian Federation; Volzhsky polytechnic institute (branch) of Volgograd state technical university. Volzhsky, Russian Federation)

Social information in the system of society coordination: philosophical analysis

The way of coordination of complete society represents the complex multilevel, multidimensional system including all steps of coordination determined by social integrity. One of components of this system – social information. Social information is a specific form of interrelation, interaction of components of a public system in general with environmental conditions, implemented at all levels, coordination functions – from preparation and decision-making before obtaining results of its performance.

Key words: information, society, management, personality, information influence, competence.

May 14, 2019
