Category of headwear as explicatory of ethno-cultural information

It is presented a fragmentary lexical-semantic space of the concept "headwear", which contains a set of lexical units that are semantically related to the reference general meaning of "headwear". These nominations represent the amount of knowledge that was obtained by the ethnos as a result of understanding of various phenomena of reality and practical development of the world. The definition of system connections between the word and the reality designated by it has caused relevance of this article. The study of these relations should be carried out with the involvement of linguistic, cultural and ethnographic information. The theoretical and practical significance of the work lies in the fact that it involves the identification of national-mental and national-cultural components of the studied nominations, most of which came out of common use, resulting in the loss of information about these objects of ethnic culture.

Key words: nomination, concept, headwear, ethno-cultural, lingual and cultural.
