

PHILOLOGY

Viktoria A. Razhina

(Rostov Law Institute of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Russia, Rostov-on-Don, Russian Federation)

Slang expressions in military aviation as a special communicative code

It is considered slang expressions functioning in the military discourse as social-professional subcode. There are different functions of slang such as expressive, addressable, persuasive, esoteric, emphatic and decorative ones. It is drawn a conclusion that military slang is considered to be a special language means of social-oriented communication, reflected in military subcultural national worldview and fulfilling the function of “language passport”.

Key words: slang, military discourse, social-professional subcode.

December 27, 2021
