

PEDAGOGY

Yana N. Poddubnaya

(Pedagogical Institute of the branch of Vladivostok state university in Ussuriysk, Ussuriysk, Russian Federation)

Functionally literate teacher as guarantee of formation secondary school students' functional literacy

The purpose of this study is to consider functional literacy training as a necessary component of the educational program of students in pedagogical field of education. The scientific novelty of the study is to compare the teaching of functional literacy of students and schoolchildren. The author pays special attention to the need to teach students functional literacy so that graduates of pedagogical universities subsequently could transfer their knowledge to students and meet the requirements of the updated GEF through the implementation of professional activities in the field of the educational subject «English». The result of the study is a set of tasks aimed at forming the functional literacy of students of pedagogical areas of training in the profile of a foreign language (English).

Key words: functional literacy, vocational education, English, set of tasks, teaching methodology.

January 29, 2023

---