Philosophical factors of preserving and strengthening the institution of the family in the Russian socio-cultural space of the XXI century

Within the framework of this scientific research, the author comprehensively characterizes the problem of the modern crisis of family and marriage in Russian society, and also names effective philosophical factors for overcoming it. The article discusses such alarming trends as low readiness for marriage among young people, the destruction of gender role models and the crisis of love. These processes are considered by the author as a single totality, which became the cause of the crisis and contributes to its prolongation. At the end of the article, an attempt is made to propose an effective model for solving the current crisis and leveling its negative consequences for the family and society as a whole.

Key words: family and marriage relations, the institution of the family, the educational function of the family, the crisis of the institution of the family, gender role stereotypes, the crisis of love.
