Russian concepts schools' fundamentals in contemporary researches

The paper reviews Russian contemporary research on concepts. The theses on the issue dated from January 1, 2012 to April 30, 2022 have been analyzed in details. The analysis deals in the authors' academic interests. The paper determines how relevant the leading schools of conceptual research in this country (Volgograd, Voronezh, Krasnodar and St. Petersburg-Kemerovo schools) are for those contemporary theses. Besides the above mentioned theses' analysis the paper provides a profound review of up-to-date contributions and monographs on concepts issued in Russia within the last five years. Special attention is given to the subject of the publications.
