Implementation of patriotic education in universities through English language teaching

The article considers the development of patriotism among students of higher educational institutions studying under the pedagogical education training program. Special attention is paid to the patriotic education of students when teaching English. The scientific novelty of the research lies in the integration of tasks that have both subject and personal goals, namely, the development of reading skills in conjunction with patriotic education in English language classes. A set of tasks has been developed aimed at working on the text, the content of which includes a personal component of learning, including information about the history of the university where students study.

Key words: vocational education, English, patriotic education.
