

PHILOLOGY

Elena M. Ruchkina¹, Elizaveta E. Belova², Artem A. Karpenko³

(^{1,2,3}Kaluga State University named after K.E. Tsiolkovsky, Kaluga, Russian Federation)

Dinamics of changes in function of English vocabulary in Russian political discourse

This study is devoted to the analysis of the dynamics of changes in the function of English vocabulary in Russian political discourse, which is of great importance for understanding current trends in the political sphere due to the increase in political conflicts in the modern world. Due to the constantly changing political situation in Russia, the thesaurus of political figures changes as well. The results of this research can have practical application for the development of effective communication strategies in the formation of public opinion based on the understanding of the main communicative intentions of the speaker.

Key words: political discourse, anglicism, frequency, content analysis.

November 26, 2023
