

PEDAGOGY

Sergey A. Pisarenko¹, Elena A. Iljina²

(Southern Federal University, Rostov-on-Don, Russian Federation)

Some aspects of the development of the field of additional art education for adult students in modern conditions

The article examines the modern features of adult education in the context of additional art education. The analysis of some factors influencing the forms of educational activity of adult participants in the educational process is given. The aspects related to the educational motivation of adult students are described. A number of issues related to the implementation of distance learning in the subjects of the art cycle are disclosed.

Key words: adult education, additional education, drawing, painting, individualization.

January 11, 2024
