Ethical and moral education of young people based on the traditions of folk pedagogy

The author's substantiation of an integrated approach in pedagogy using elements of folk pedagogy in the educational space is given. The global processes taking place in the modern educational space require teachers to revisit the problem of integrated holistic, culturally oriented education and upbringing based on the best domestic traditions. Scientific and theoretical and methodological arguments of Russian philosophy and pedagogy are accumulating in modern scientific knowledge. In the article, the authors, from the standpoint of historical and logical analysis, use the traditions of folk pedagogy of the Dagestani people in the process of forming the ethical and moral education of the youth of the republic.

Key words: education, upbringing, tradition, ritual, custom, culture, values, historical heritage, comprehensive campaign, cultural traditions, folk crafts.
