

PHILOSOPHY

Nikolay S. Gordeev

(Don State Technical University, Rostov-on-Don, Russian Federation)

Sanctions as a tool of global politics from the point of view of political philosophy

The article provides a philosophical analysis of the concepts of “economic sanctions” and “restrictions.” It shows that economic sanctions are a tool of global politics, while restrictions are a tool of trade wars. The article reveals the goals of sanctions imposed by some countries on others. It emphasizes the sanctions confrontation between Western and Russian civilizations. The article provides a political and philosophical reflection on the causes of the global confrontation between Russia and the collective West. The article concludes that the underlying reasons for the Western world's sanctions policy against Russia are spiritual, moral, and value differences.

Key words: global politics, economic sanctions, restrictions, embargo, political philosophy, spirituality, legitimacy of sanctions.

January 16, 2026
